On Sept. 16 the Grays and Baltimore used three umpires here but are to be given credit only for two, or $5 each. Sunday, Sept. 17, each one is to get credit for $7.50. They will have to give you their own figures on transportation, as I did not handle that.

All these matters may be confusing, so if there is any question in your mind, bring these letters and my sheets to the Yankee Stadium on Sunday and I'll do my best to clarify matters.

In your letter of August 16 you questioned credits for Aug. 20 and 21. I think we straightened that out at the meeting on August 28, but if we didn't give Baltimore credit for $7.50 on August 20 and the Yanks and Baltimore credit for $2.50 each on August 21.

Regarding League expenses as per secretaries duties, there is about $30 due me for phone calls, stamps, etc., which will cover the entire season.

Would also greatly appreciate a check for balance due on booking, including the $25 you deducted for the All Phillies rain guarantee which was not correct, as I previously advised you.

Tom Wilson will see you Sunday in reference to the Bill at the Douglas Hotel, which he wants paid. Call Sparrow if you need additional tickets. Regards to Abe.

Sincerely,

Ed. Gottlieb
